II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

- Federal question       Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

and has its principal place of business in (name) _____.

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

COMPLAINT

1. It has been 5 years since I filed my I-589 (see attached copy (1))
2. The law requires that I receive an interview within 180 days after filing I-589, I have waited five years. (2-8)
3. I have tried to get the asylum case expedited more than 4 times, the Arlington asylum office has only replied that it does not have the resources to perform the interview (see attached correspondences ).

I requested to be on:

(9-19)

- 4 (a) getting a case expedited request
- (b) to receive on short notice interview
- (c) to receive an interview under the Last In First Out (LIFO)
5. I have written to my Congresswoman Eleanor Holmes Norton more than fours times and got same response from asylum office.(see attached copy )
6. On 28 March 2024, I walked into the asylum office and made an expedited application citing health reasons as indicated in the medical report by Neurologist Dr Kalhorn after having been diagnosed with brain tumor (subepyndemoma). I have surgery on 08/01/2024 at Georgetown Hospital and have been forbidden to conduct any business for a minimum of 30 days after the procedure succeeds (see attached medical report )

(20-25)

7. The least experience is missing filed documents in the file from the asylum office from original I-589 filed in March of 2019.

8. Lastly, I have attached my 2023 tax returns as required by the laws of the land.

(26-43)

With the above mentioned concerns, unattended as they have been, I am left with no other option besides to approach this Honorable Court for consideration.
